WHAT SETS
IPO
APART
FROM OTHER IP ASSOCIATIONS?

Our members are intellectual property owners in all industries and all fields of technology. As a worldwide trade association, our goal is to serve the needs of corporate IP departments. Whether you have an IP staff of 1 or 100, IPO can help.

SHARING IDEAS

AND BEST PRACTICES

COMMITTEES

IPO Corporate Members—Chief IP officers and their staff—collaborate and network year-round through a variety of IPO programs. Hundreds of organizations and more than 10,000 individuals worldwide are involved in IPO.

Keep up-to-date on developments in your area of practice and develop relationships with fellow professionals outside of your company by joining a committee. IPO has dozens of active committees working on the most important areas of IP law and practice, including:

- Patents, Trademarks, Copyrights, Trade Secrets
- Business Issues (Corporate IP Management, IP Licensing)
- Litigation & Dispute Resolution
- International IP Law & Practice
- Women in IP
- And more

MEETINGS

Want to continue the conversation in person? Join your colleagues at the IPO Annual Meeting and the IPOwners Spring Summit™. Your IPO membership saves you and your staff hundreds of dollars off registration fees.

BE PART

OF THE FUTURE
OF IP

GLOBAL ADVOCACY

With IPO, you have a voice in a highly influential government affairs program that engages government legislatures and agencies, courts, and IP offices worldwide to advance the interests of our corporate members.

Let IPO enhance and complement your existing government affairs activities. Worried about the uncertain future of IP law, but don't have the resources to advance your advocacy agenda? Join IPO and make your voice heard.

IPO advocates for reforms that provide cost-effective and reliable intellectual property protection.

Current advocacy programs include:

- Section 101 patent subject matter eligibility
- High patent quality
- Patent law harmonization
- Patent enforcement reforms
- Anti-counterfeiting and piracy
- And more

STAY AHEAD

OF CHANGES IN IP LEGISLATION AND REGULATION
